On the left on the right honey, it's all the same People everywhere are still playing the same old game, yeah
For a dime they put you down lay you in your grave, yes they will
They put you down when you are not around it drives
you insane

That's why I gotta get some changes made
Honey, want to rearrange some day
C'mon little baby, my mind is getting sick of today
I said come on right now

Uptown downtown acting just like you should
Even if you play their game it won't do you no good There's too many creeps out there hungry for your blood, yes they are
They put you down when you are not around, drives
you insane

That's why I gotta get some changes made
Honey want to rearrange some day
C'mon little baby, my mind is sick enough of today
All right now!
You can say anything!
Come on, take it away!

Don't know why sometimes I don't feel like trying Seeing everybody darlin' only makes me mad
If they don't like it honey guess that's too bad
It's just driving me mad
Goin' outta my brain!
It's drivin' me insane!
Can't stand this pain!
Ah, come on now!

Uptown downtown acting just like you should
Even if you play their game, it won't do you no good There's too many creeps out there hungry for your
blood, yes they are
They put you down when you are not around, drives

you insane

That's why I gotta get some changes made
Honey want to rearrange some day
C'mon little baby, my mind is sick enough of today
