Harsh sun cracks fragile clay
Parched lips from poison air
Cruel lights from an endless day
I won't believe you do not care

(Chorus)

My skin split from shallow thorns
Theres not fruit from seedless corn
Barren Clouds of desert lands
Work the bone of splintered hands
Dark horizons without an end
A timeless love I still defend

Dust is killed by the tear of rain
Windy sands blinds the eye
Filthy mud cannot soothe our pain
Rest comes only when we die

(Chorus)

My skin split from shallow thorns
Theres not fruit from seedless corns
Barren Clouds of desert lands
Work the bone of splintered hands
Dark horizons without an end
A timeless love I still defend

My skin split from shallow thorns
Theres not fruit from seedless corns
