I try just not to hold you tight
Cant feel losing you
We never say we want to leave
Green ends up being blue

Forgot to comfort my reasons again
Forgot to touch that side of true
We never loose we always bear
Something worth not losing to

(Chorus)

SO forget for what we are
Coz it's the only time I can hold
I cant even climb or even fall
So give me a hand or let me go
No reason now
No reason now

And if I have to leave my life
To enter this lonely night, I might
I have to know, I'll scream, Please
Just a little further now,
Further now to say

(Chorus)

SO forget for what we are
Coz it's the only time I can hold
I cant even climb or even fall
So give me a hand or let me go
No reason now
No reason now

I try just not to hold you tight
Cant feel losing you
