Ive been thinking that this could take awhile
Because rushing things is just not my style
But dont be scared of me I aint no crocodile
I just happen to be a little in denial
Oh, oh

Yeah, my mind tends to be a little foul
But Im definitely not on the prowl
Ive just got big eyes like a baby owl
With a laugh just like a hyena howl
Oh, oh

(Chorus):

But my romantic life seems more than deprived
I want you running through my mind
Want you running through my mind
And Ive got more than a broken heart
I need a brand new start
Im not an animal

Its hard to talk to you cuz Im a bit of a wuss
And Ill admit Im more than curious
I may not have eight arms like an octopus
But Ill never make you furious
Oh, oh

(Chorus)
