When I was your woman
And you was my man
You used to say the sweetest things to me
But you was always good like that
You used to tell I was pretty
But guess that you were the...
But it was nothing more than boring to you
Being with the perfect ten

So my, my nails were done
I had my hair on point
Got my, my body talking the way you like it boy
Yes I played the part
Then you broke my heart
As if I mean nothing to you
Can't believe how you make me feel pretty

Pretty upset
Pretty broke down
I feel so pretty
Pretty messed up
Pretty much done
Now without you, super pretty
I will never be pretty messed up.

I don't wanna be pretty no more.
When I was your woman
And you was my man
I tried to share my world with you
But you just did not give a damn
You just tell me I was pretty
As if that's all that I am
It's like you never even knew me
Or tried to get know me
Was just an accessory
Oh can't believe it
How you make me feel pretty

Pretty upset
Pretty broke down
I feel so pretty
Pretty messed up

Pretty much done
Now without you, super pretty
I will never be pretty messed up.

I don't wanna be pretty no more.

If I have to do it
All over again
I just hope this gon' be headed different
Cause you made me question
The woman I really am
I don't know why I put up with you
Can't believe it
How you make me feel pretty.

Pretty upset
Pretty broke down
I feel so pretty
Pretty messed up
Pretty much done
Now without you, super pretty
I will never be pretty messed up.

I don't wanna be pretty no more
