You'll leave me, what do you mean?
Where the hell will you go?
I thought I owned you. In the winter time I'm not alone.
She feels just like a bird.
She thought I owned her, but I'm sleeping with somebody else, lying to somebody new.
I thought I owned you? I'm flooded out with energy, energy and deceit. I thought I owned her?
Holy hands and Holy feet, why the hell would we meet?
She thought I owned her, but I'm sleeping with somebody else, lying to somebody new. I thought I owned you?
