MrSamFrank - Break (lyrics) UNOFFICIAL transposition
by FYLTHI

Do you care if I break? (break) (8x)

Verse 1

If you throw another stone at my pane, baby

You may never see through me again.

If you stick another pin in my doll, baby

It could be the beginning of the end.

There's a limit to the weight I can carry,

And I'm using every muscle I can.

If you cut another thread I'm sure to crumble,

But I guess that's just a part of your plan.

Chorus

Do you care if I break? (break) (8x)

Verse 2

When the fireworks illuminate fast, baby

I can never walk away without burns.

I know better than to wait for your help, baby

It was never one of your concerns.

I've been living in the shadow of a tidal wave.

I can count the moments till I drown.

Let me kiss you at the cliff tops edge, baby

So you can watch me when you push me down.

Chorus

Do you care if I break? (break) (8x)
