I'm ready to go,
It's creeping along.
A deep lack of guilt,
And fool's sense of love.

You can say it's nothing,
You can claim there's no-one to hide.
You could be respectable and keep it to yourself,
Cause we know that she was the best that you've had.
Yes I know, she was the best that you've had.

Greased and unclean,
A hiss laid by God.
A duped bridle hole,
And a boyhood slipping in Blood.

You can say it's nothing,
You can claim there's no-one to hide.
You could be respectable and keep it to yourself at
least,
Cause we know that she was the best that you've had.
Yes I know, she was the best that you've had.

V U L T U R E - P I A N O !!

You can say it's nothing,
You can claim there's no-one to hide.
You could be respectable and keep it to yourself at
least,
Cause we know that she was the best that you've had.
Yes I know, she was the best that you've had.
