you have tried
you are ripped up
but nothing has changed
they have told you
you will be lucky
but nothing has changed
i can't wait to set it off and it will be the end finally i'm gonna lie back down and ask for nothing, nothing i'm gonna throw it back and let it, let it go
though i'm not concerned for this how it goes
i am ill
but it does not hurt

i get up get up
but my day is ruined again
i get up get up
but the day is ruined again
you can run
but what's the point
they won't catch you
you can love
but to what to end
they won't leave you

yesterday was awful
today's discolored
today's discolored
