Verse One:

Guess the stars, so lined
And I got it together
Who wouldve thought?
Ive known, that therell be a forever
It wasnt in my plans
To fall in love so deeply
Til Ive found someone
Who got me so completely
From the time we met
I knew I was in trouble
My head is spinning fast
I started seeing double
Swept me off my feet
Youre just trying to read me
And I aint that kind of girl
To give it up that easy

Bridge 1:

You know when I just want to be left alone
The only love to give me my space
Cuz I am someone whos holding my own
That doesnt make you afraid

Chorus:

Tu y Yo, nobody thought wed make it
Tu y Yo, completely underrated
Said we wouldnt last
We kicked them in the ass
Cuz, what we are is strong,
And thats our statement
I never knew love before
Now youre the one who keeps me coming back for more

Verse Two:

I got a man, a friend, a believer to the end

And when we touch, a mess
Cuz youre the hardest thing Ive ever known to Rome
The planet love was averaged
Til you came alone, and oh let me have it
Now my world has changed
And only for the better
No more looking back,
Just finally found the center
Youre a dream come true, that everyone imagines
Im the lucky zone, that hadnt really happened

Bridge 2:

You can finish my sentence for me
You know me inside and outside so well
If anyone thinks were not meant to be
Were gonna give them some hell

Chorus:

Tu y Yo, nobody thought wed make it
Tu y Yo, completely underrated
Said we wouldnt last
We kicked them in the ass
Cuz, what we are is strong,
And thats our statement-a
