(English version)

My face is covered with blood.
There's nothing but pain,
passing closest to pleasure.

I can't tell where I'm going to.
I'm running all confused.
Death himself is coming.

Then I see you standing there,
can do nothing but run away.
Following you in my dream.

Look out! I'm raving mad.
You can't stop my sadness.
The first dream is beginning to flow.

(I'll slice my face, covered with blue blood.)
(Give me some more pain.)
(Give me throws of death.)

Tears melt in blue blood.
A blurry, reincarnated form of desire.

Now a frightened lonely heart
seeks to wander with the passing of dreams.

Dance to the sad tragedy as a phantom.
On the awakening form of the stage.

My eyes overflow again
To disappear, throw away love's gleaming replica.
(Give me some more pain.)
(Give me throws of death.)

Tears melt in blue blood.
A blurry, reincarnated form of desire.

Blue tears dance to the tragedy of solitude.
As my heart continues to be soaked.
