I wish I could remember all days in my life
If you ask what's on my mind
I tell you I'll dedicate all of my time
To everything that makes me come alive

I like to think there is magic
Staring out in the blue
I'd like to think that the Sun and the stars
Shine just because of you

Why don't you show me the places
Where I've never been
Where everything is bright and new
Give me a picture of things
That I never have seen
Reflected in in the eyes of you

I like to think there is magic
Staring out in the blue
I'd like to think that the Sun and the stars
Shine just because...

I guess all I will remember when the Summer's gone
How the days were long and Summer skies were blue
And I guess I will remember my favourite song
'Cause it's the one that makes me think of you

I guess all I will remember when the Summer's gone
How the days were long and Summer skies were blue
And I guess I will remember my favourite song
'Cause it's the one that makes me think of you
