"Migration"

Exploring areas all wandering
Will always be enough for you
Your mind is filled with all the smallest things
You've got an eye for details too

Know you've been waiting
On one thing that is true
Wherever you go
Are sensations new
Know you've been running
But I've been running too
The only difference is you don't mind the waiting, I do

No need improving skills in having fun
It's all out there, just look around
Days slowly passing by but you won't mind
They can steal the show without a fight

Know you've been waiting
On one thing that is true
Wherever you go
Are sensations new
Know you've been running
But I've been running too
The only difference is you don't mind the waiting, I do
