"New Moon"

Visit "New Moon" on MotoLyrics.com

Always waiting for something more to come
Always waiting for the Summer sun
To come lighten my days up
Before it is gone

Always one step ahead in my mind
And as the time pass by
Everyday seems to cover the meaning
Of the things that I like

Then you showed me the moon is new
That there is always time for changing
And to start believing
And I do believe you

You know it would be a lie
But I'd like to say at least I
Tried my best, I'm not a coward
I am nothing like that

Then show me the moon is new
If that means a lot to you
Well, you know that I'd surely believe you
I will always do

Always waiting for something more to come
Always waiting for the Summer sun
To come and you will know it
The reason for all this will show it's Meaning and we will believe it
Like I believe in you
