Change the view and turn the page There's no time to hesitate Something's lost and something's found And that is all that matters now

I know you don't think it's true That town is a part of you You learned how to play that game Kept on running anyway

Let it go find something new A strategy explored by you Places that are on your mind Are forcing you to leave the ground

I know you don't think it's true That town is a part of you You learned how to play that game Kept on running anyway

You Would never see it from another point of view Every memory is lost on you

I know you don't think it's true That town is a part of you You learned how to play that game Kept on running anyway
