CHORUS:

This is a novel of Rebecceh and Angstrom a story of a novel, that's the perfect description of 'em this is a ressurection, this is a mass ascention this is a merger of a pair of eyes, a pair of eyes, a girl and a guy

Strolling liquid mountain pile of consciousness a world of listlessness is all we ever asked for rolling down a fine collection of lucky charms my horseshoe's gone rusty, my clover has lost its leaves Pages fall from trees in bundles, 'n look like leaves typewriter's movements are too slow punctuation is a great idea when you're a pair of writers in a canyon lounge

to stop this list would be a crime of second nature radiate these words in circular friendship who is it coming from tonight?
