Just got into another fight, by mentioning your name
I never meant to hurt her, and I know my heart's to blame
With her I have a sure thing, but with you it's a mystery
And I'll thank her for her patience,
No more chances left for me
I don't know how I've come so close
My thoughts so far way
The nights I've dreamed of holding you
With all I am embraced
Do you feel what I feel, I can't read it in your face
The mystery that I'll never know,
Will live through all my days
Down on my hands, down on my hands,
Down on my face I keep falling
Outside I will sleep, like the light in the morning
Out of my reach, out of my reach
The little cracks open wider, letting everything slip through,
Another stone turned to keep me from (you)
I know the one you're with now, his heart has been untrue
I don't know if I'm quite that bad
But I'd never lie to you
Inside I see a shaken child, life's gift to you was pain
The walls you've built around yourself
Are ones that I can break
And do you think about me
Each night you close your eyes
The image in my head, like a bullet through the mind
Your eyes reflect an ocean
Your waves came crashing down
No where left for me to hide
In mystery I'll drown
