girl come over here, let me hold you for a little while,
and remeber,

Iâ€™ll always love you..]

...Forever more

Everything changes but you

Weâ€™ve said goodbye, the taxi cab is waiting

Now donâ€™t you cry just one more kiss before I have to go hey girl I know, the situation changed and so much is new but something in my life remains the same

â€™cause

Everything changes but you

Weâ€™re a thousand miles apart and you know I love you

Everything changes but you

You know every singel day Iâ€™ll be thinking about you

The rumourâ€™s true you know that there been others what can I do, I tell you baby they donâ€™t mean a thing

Now girl donâ€™t go and throw our love away

Iâ€™ll be home soon back in your arms, to hear you say that

Everything changes but you

We're a thousand miles apart and you know I love you

Everything changes but you

You know every single day I'll be thinking about you

Everything changes but you

We're a thousand miles apart and you know I love you

Everything changes but you

You know every single day I'll be thinking about you

Though everything changes around us (Baby don't you cry)

We will be the same as before

forever more

Everything changes but you

We're a thousand miles apart and I miss you baby

Everything changes but you

You know every single day I'll be thinking about you repeat and fade
