"Lady Tonight"

The night is feeling cold now
And I must hold now my baby date
So glad to see you fine you're always on my mind
But before it gets too late
We can try love, but if love is not enough
Then we can take a little walk
Just to find if our intentions are in time
Then I can make you baby see that Lady tonight I am gonna make it happen
Lady tonight I'm gonna take this love to new heights
Lady tonight I'm gonna feel emotion
Maybe tonight I will love you and hold you tightly Life is what you make it you must shake it to make it right
Time will always make you see if you believe
Then things will be alright
We'll try love and if love is not enough
We must be destined to be free
In time you'll feel like giving up
Then I must make you baby see that (chorus
