one cage, ten times count till three,
try to wake up one bad dream,

I'm trying to call, when I fall, I'm trying to speak, I'm in need,
we're always going nowhere,
no ground under my feet,
we've got to let this drown, far away from me.

It flows like a river, the blood, the knife inside of me, I'm lost, I felt the anger, the hate who sets the demons free,
I'm lost, I felt and I'm trying to forget those words you never said,

One cage, nine times count till three,

I want to go outside, try to get out,
I'm harmed its getting worse, labile this curse, we're always going nowhere, we try to give and take,
wake up now, before it is too late.

The hate won't let me go, so just to let you know, I'm lost, I felt,

I'm lost, I felt and I'm trying to get out,
but they won't let me be,
I still believe in..
