i've met the strangers at a place more than a million miles away they were so nice, so full of grace i know they came from far away now i'm walking on magic fields i see the world is the only place to be they took me to a foreign place and then they thought me to be strong they told me not to go away even if anything goes wrong i love the world i wouldn't leave all the places we were born i wait at midnight to receive a final sign of their return

I am waiting for the night drifting away on the waves of my dreams to another day i am standing on the hill and beyond the clouds the wind is blowing still and catching my doubts

a dream of you i believe i receive a sign of you tonite i wanna hide my feelings too as you do and i wanna be with you

I am hunting all the night the slave to my dream an illustrated scene ascends in the steam We're playing full of vice our emotional game I'm turning off my eyes for hiding my shame

A never ending dream ...

I am watching all the flowers dying away in heated breath of live at the dawning day I am waking up in spring and kissing your face a sweaty burning thing I feel your embrace mirror

i'm looking for a mirror to face my eyes and realize the beauty of youth is the only thing worth having i'm jealous of everything whose beauty does not die oh i'm jealous of the picture the mirror has painted

i beg for more more than i can get but i know i can't get by with only a glance of my eye beautiful day its years since you've been leaving the places we were born i wake up i am receiving a sign of your return you gave me one good reason to wait until you come i'm waiting and i'm dreaming we're drowning in the sun a beautiful day and a beautiful night you drive me crazy when you hold me tight i live my life so slow and i'll walk while you will run i slam the door behind me the same way as you've done the flowers you've planted are growing in the light they're waiting in the backyard i visit every night the roads i walked were winding until you crossed my way you gotta get back sometimes and stay another day you lead me to the backyard to hold my body tight i guess you'll be my lifeguard you're always by my side the moon

i left the light on went out of my house and sat on the stairs the tv plays mtv from somewere else

the moon will carry on goin' up and down forever the channel is changed again a voice of a man is telling the news a hijacked plane two children cryin' in the rain the moon will never sacrifice it's energy and light the war in the east is still goin' on to kill anyone a burning car and bomb attacks in russia circles of love

we dance in the desert i feel a glance of your eye the sun is burning on the sand yearning bodies hand in hand circles of love turn my head i deserve and i'll get all your lovin' tonight and my fire will burn innocence won't return your face across the far sky i loose myself in your eyes i'm counting nights and days waiting for the next embrace i realize you drive me crazy in my mind love came face to face with life all emotions in my mind i try to cover try to hide the night moved on i went to a bar to have a rest again i saw him then a smiling old man came rushing in he sat down close to me and soon i could see he's older than it seemes to me and the night moved on and i got no sleep his furrowed face told a story of life his restless eyes kept his face alive his face alive his tanned skin did not tell of his age i could see he's older than it seemed to me he left the bar then he spoke to me and i was captured

'cause now i could see his way of life he said little girl you'd better do what you want your life is too short to waste time the sun

the sunrise in the east every morning in my dreams i turn the music on and start to dance
with all my friends

every night and every day and takes the sorrows far away so far away the sunset in the west every evening in my dreams the party is going on i love to dance

a easy way of life gonna make me dance

my life goes on changes all around and everytime and everything is changed in my head i'm longing for a change i wouldn't beg but for a change i never will get i spend my time in learning everytime i learn i turn blue into red

i just wanna have fun leaving shadows into the sun i get in troeble with some friends of mine they've told me there is no need to change we quarrel it becomes a colder time and now im freezing down to the bones nothing changes but i've lost 2 friends and that depends on changing myself
