"Take Me Home"

Take me home
Please take me home
To the place where I was born
Take me home, take me home, take me home

I don't want any friends
In my new home
'Cause I'd prefer to stay
There all alone

You told me
"I would like to be with you"
Now you're gone
And everything's so strange and new
I love my friends
And you know I miss them so
I miss my friends children
And I miss watching them grow

Take me back to the place
Where I was born
'Cause it's the place where
I feel like being home
