Breaths by the Shore
But the wind youre defying
Deaths at your door
And you're not even crying
Be wherever your wrecked Chrysler Chrome
You will find a much nicer home
Maudie my dear

Peddle no more
An accuser said lying
I settled the score
Though a loser for trying
Though I never knew most of her ways
What I knew made most of my days
Maudie my dear

Crossbones & Roses
Are good for the soul
The poets of heaven
You're soon to behold
Cast cross the fountain
To me while I'm grieving
What is your reason for leaving?
