Knock, knock you are knocking on my door
I could be knocking on my door now for some time now Hello, I will reach you like a friend though I'm not really sure that's what you are

Try to run, I'll try to run from it but it's got me running in circles.
Try to run, I'll try to run from it
but it's got me running in circles.
Try to run, I'll try to run from it
but it's got me running in circles.
Try to run, I try to run from it but it's got every little part of me

Running in circles, every little part of me
Running in circles, every little part of me

Look, look, I am thirsty and I know that I I'm gonna be on the floor hello, is there anybody there so I can get myself through this mud

Try to start too slowly parts of it but it's got every little part
Try to start too slowly parts of it
but it's got every little part
I try to start too slowly parts of it
but it's got every little part
I try to start too slowly parts of it
but it's got every little part of me

Rolling in circles, every little part of me
Rolling in circles, every little part of me

Way of goodbye
See you on the other side,
way of goodbye
see you on the other side

Try to run, I've tried to run from it
but it's got me running in circles

Try to start to slowly part from it
but it's got every little part I try to start to slowly part of it
but it's got every little part of me

Running in circles, every little part of me x 4
