I am the city, but I miss the sea
Waves wake up, what's sleeping in me
I am the city, but I miss the sea
The waves wake up, hurts sleeping in me

So take me to the seaside, and don't say a word
Walk toward whisper, hey, what needs to be heard
Walk toward whisper, hey, what needs to be heard, heard
Days go by, days go by, days go by, days go by

Days go by, I would spend them in a disco, oh, oh, oh
Days go by, I would spend them in a disco, oh, oh, oh
Days go by, I would spend them in a disco, oh, oh, oh x
