Partypeople put your hands in the air and slap some skin like you do care aoeu

There's nothing left for me to say now you'll always be a part of me yeah somehow you gave me something to remember you gave it to me oh so sweet and tender You're always in my heart and in my soul you make me strong so believe me
our love will go

on and on we go
it's you and me together
our love will last forever
it's you and me together

You took control of my emotions and all that's left for me is total devotions I will go, where you go cause you make me feel alive so just say to me, baby you're the one

it's you and me together
it's you and me together

it's you and me together
it's you and me together

it's you and me together
it's you and me together
