Uhhhhh
Ohhhhhh

There are so many things I wanna say There are so many thoughts inside of me oh but my words can't seem to find a way I can see you're changing more and more Acting like you did and do before I see you're slippin' away but I don't wanna lose you I would do anything for us to remain cause I know that we can make it last-to be true I don't wanna lose you

Tell me that you love me from the heart and nothing in the world can tear us apart tell me that we'll be together for the rest of our lives, baby now and forever
tell me that you still believe in everlasting love and we'll always be together(now and forever)

Baby take a look inside yourself and rightover you're seeing someone else baby please be true you've gotta let me know tell me what you do to make you show cause I don't wanna feel this insecure you gotta give me a sign cause I don't wanna lose you I would do anything for us to remain
cause I know that we can make it last-to be true
I don't wanna lose you

and nothing in the world can tear us apart
tell me that we'll be together
for the rest of our lives,
baby now and forever
and we'll always be together(now and forever)

Remember all the promises we made remember all the words we use to say(use to say) that an open heart will always find a way what would it take for me to make you realize

And I know that we can make it last-to be true I don't wanna lose you...Uhhhhhh

and nothing in the world can tear us apart
tell me that we'll be together
for the rest of our lives,
baby now and forever
and we'll always be together(now and forever)

Uhhhhh...
