I'm walking in the road so sad
'Cause I'm always lost speaking of love
Now I'm taking another time and chance
To cure the pain inside of my heart

Loneliness' the most of my times
I need someone to share with me a smile
Someone here will be there for me every time
I can depend whenever I need her in mine

But if the search will over
And found someone to be there
Even it comes sooner or later
I promise you girl

We'll take you to the world with hot
And keep you to the cave of my heart
And give you the right room and start
And I we'll share the greatest taste of love
I'm not afraid to fall in love again
'Cause I believe that there's someone waiting for me right there
Who will love me, love me until the end
Until the end the love we must share

Forever I'm not the who care
Just didn't like before I just couldn't bear
Now I'll do and I will show what's the best for you
After I found you I'll live for you

And now the search is over
I found someone to be there
I promise you girl
We'll share the greatest taste of love
