aaaaa s you see, science once again robs us of our jobs aa they've put a micro-chip in my place, I hide behind aaaaaa screen of aggression nowadays it's just a way of aa aa saving some face, so now I'm permanently aaaa aa drunk like the rest of the race with leisure if you think I'm clowning I assure you that I'm drowning here in leisure they taught me how to work but they can't teach me how to shirk correctly. I spend all day and all my allowance on t.v. games --- amusement heaven at the flick of a switch. instead of a lathe I busy my fingers nowadays by scoring goals with the gentlest twich. I've forgotten how to use my legs to invade the pitch leisure if you think I'm clowning I assure you that I'm drowning here in leisure they taught me how to work but they can't teach me how to shirk correctly. they had retired me 'fore I left school (just saw no point in the standing in line) so I spend lots of time lounging at home (why not come in 'cos the carpet is fine) what a waste of breath it is searching for the jobs that don't exist. so now I'm permanently drunk like the rest of the race with leisure if you think I'm clowning I assure you that I'm drowning here in leisure they taught me how to work but they can't teach me how to shirk correctly.
