[Gayngs Sample]

I've been walking for days
I wore out my shoes
There's a dust approachin'
And everything will change
And I'm tired too
Baby I'm on the move
I've been screening phone calls since I got home y'all
And I been going so hard like the whole fall
I want plaques for my whole wall and racks to fill a whole mall
And my girl is a catch like a gold ball, go long
They say life is a trip and a bitch
Well luckily I always pack condoms in my goyard Niggas hate like there ain't space for us both dawg
I try to give the rest room, but I won't stall
Naw, don't ever expect it
I love bein' unknown cause everything is unexpected
They wonder how I ethered the net without a connection
I tell them that they wifi was still being detected
Now I want all the lights, quick as Harlem Nights
In case it cost my life, I balled like Walter White
I find a way to call it right when I get in the lab (20 miles) In the game, I want it breaking bad
20 miles you can chase us
You can hunt me down
If I die build my name up
But if I leave lay down
Cause I
Cause I
Am changing and building
And breaking - bad
Can't put niggas on my back who get paid for fronting Told my team don't let dollars break us, we change for nothing
Shooting for broads who have hopes that you aim for cuffing
After that Cinderella carriage that changed to a pumpkin
Almost lost it all to this ho that Drake was fucking
Out in Texas, sending messages when I was drunken

My mom said, "I make a bed I hate waking up in"
Never write in cyrillic, but she say I'm rushing
I say "Mama, I gotta kill it 'fore they kill me"
Cause they love to see a symbol crash like they play percussion
When you fighting with temptations more than David Ruffin
When haters irritated I like a plate of onions
And those fans that leave soon as they say you buzzing
They don't relate all of a sudden, they say I changed, you bugging
Everybody's still nobody and everything is cool
But everything will change, you know it's coming 20-15, astronaut dreams
This is the life, I don't wanna leave
