I just watched WrestleMania 15,
Remembered where I got my name from
And then I say my grandma in my dreams
She told me don't forget where you came from
So I woke up and called my madre
I'm a south padre ... away like Andre
Working on my album, everybody wants a copy
But that's the problem, everybody wants to copy I'm on the edge, it's been months since I cashed in my head
I'm in this too soon, as I roll out my bed
Text my girl wish I could hold you,
So I'm on a mine when you wake up, like... my dick's like ...
You think I changed the ways, I can't explain
I sighted this Rockefeller analysis in my brain
'Cause I'm breaking up a Philly, smoking G's with my dame
While I try to rock the nation and take control of the game
But hey, all the while I'm just disguising my fears
Of falling behind my peers and losing all of my years
They used to call me a square but now everyone's weird
Old niggas die in their beds, gay rappers wife in their beds
It's my everyday life, 'cause I love this shit
Every day and night
They die for the fame but I live for the game
So you only live once is what I never can say

This remains as my everyday life
Living like every day's mine
Whether it's wrong or right
See, I'm just trying to take my time
It's out with everyday life
And living like every day's mine
Whether it's wrong or right
See, I'm just trying to take my time
Living in everyday life

Iâ€™m on the edge, itâ€™s been months since I cashed in
my head
Iâ€™m in this too soon, as I roll out my bed
All out of kush, gotta roll up some Â…
When Iâ€™m on the phone with my little bro
Saying hold up your head and take it day by day
And when you pray thank God it ainâ€™t life that they took away
So prepare when you open your eyes
Then he ask about the music and I wanna say Iâ€™m quitting
While sitting on a classic like a box of burning matches
I guess music turned trap so I found myself trapped
Bought a script called cage just to find my way back And thatâ€™s a devilâ€™s entendre for putting bars on the page
You keep your eyes on the ground well you just be eyeing your grave
But this is everyday life, Â‘cause I live this shit every day and night
See, they die for the fame but I live for the game
So you only live once is what I never can say, I canâ€™t change

This is my everyday life
Living like every dayâ€™s mine
Whether itâ€™s wrong or right
See, Iâ€™m just trying to take my time
Itâ€™s out with everyday life
And living like every dayâ€™s mine
Whether itâ€™s wrong or right
See, Iâ€™m just trying to take my time
Living in everyday life

Do I run? Do I chase it?
Will it come if I embrace it?
Everyday life, Â‘cause I live everyday like
I donâ€™t win in everyday life
I would spend every day and night
Tryina find time

Every day I decide to find a way
To try to say everything on my mind
Learn anything I can find and always remain fly
Iâ€™m Wikipedia and Expedia at the same damn time
You got eyes, better doubt it where Iâ€™m head it Or youâ€™ll be like drunk texting your exâ€™s, you know you gonna regret it Right now they asking who X is, but soon theyâ€™ll not forget it
Iâ€™m living long like a legend, enjoying every second

This is my everyday life
Living like every day's mine
Whether it's wrong or right
See, I'm just trying to take my time
'Cause I'm living in everyday life
And living like every day's mine
Whether it's wrong or right
See, I'm just trying to take my time
Living in everyday life
