the kid with the green backpack told the kid with the velcro shoes he likes it when they clasp and he told the girl with the african medallion built like a stallion she had a nice ass the girl with the african medallion went and started pouting and ran out of class real fast the kid with the velcro shoes never knew who he told that to was abused by her dad the kid with the velcro shoes wasnt cool in the eyes of the school cuz his family was broke and when he talk to girls he dont mean to sound rude he just always listen to the words he dont know he was tryna do the wild thing urgent but everybody heard he was a virgin and that got past to every person they act like kids so the rumors will hurt em see everybody knows that they glow cuz they all gon talk, they all gon talk and everything she say he gon say cuz they all gon

and you know if he knows and she knows that everybodys gonna go talk, they gon talk, they gon

star wars shirt about all of his plans hes wanna be a big rapper but before that first he wanna ask her to the dance the kid with the star wars shirt has a deal with a jerk that likes to solve things with his hands til the jerk met a bigger jerk that will put him in a hearse after he finds out what he tucks in his pants the kid with the letter jacket asked the kid with the leather jacket about the girl in the mini the kid with the leather jacket told the kid in the letter jacket that she give it up a plenty and that kid heard that shit from another kid who said she gave head like a hippie little did mini ever know that the girl in the mini kept it slow when they give it up to izzy

the kid with the pink fanny pack be trippin now everybody wonder why he so different some say some heard in some way that sons gay and he dont like women so every guy stays away from him in gym dont change around him when we go swimmin the kid with the blisters told me he have five sisters and he dont really even know the difference the kid with the bomber jacket and the pager infatuated with the makin the paper defined by the sag in his pants and the rings on his hands labeled as bad news by his neighbors but one day he wanna be famous deals with the stereotypes of a gangster he doesnt have a brush to alter how hes painted they act like kids and that never ever changes
