I was told that the lesson is to learn until it hurts and I know just to forgive or I'll surely end up burnt I'm sure there's a reason that you do things you do and I'm sure there's a reason you be acting like a fool.

I was told I was different by the early age of six,
that the world couldn't handle me, whenever I did, Like I wanted to, I did like I wanted to you can't mess with them original, that was me, extraordinary, visionary ,yup that's me.

you can't mess with them original, that's me.

I've, been waiting for all my life, now I'm ready, ready machete, watch me fly..time, has never been on my side, now I'm ready,
ready machette, watch me fly.

Now everybody's got a story, hasn't been told,
and the secrets that we keep away will never get old.
We will tell them to the children that are playing in the yard,
Life is what you make it, it doesn't have to be hard.

I would say that I am different and I got the upper hand and the world is my playground,making castles in the sand.
Like I wanted to, I did what I wanted to.

I've, been waiting for all my life, now I'm ready, ready machete,
watch me fly..Time, has never been on my side, now I'm ready,
ready machette, watch me fly

you can't mess with the original, that was me, extraordinary, visionary, yup that's me. x4

No shame, No Shame at all, I found no Shame, no shame at all.

I keep saying listen, I can feel this..

I've, been waiting for all my life, (waiting all my life) now I'm ready, ready machette, watch me fly..
Time, has never been on my side, now I'm ready, ready machette, watch me fly.. x2
