(I can't do this no more
This ain't gon work man)

She's calling me again
2 way with a secret code
Here I go again
Preparing to leave
Pay the bar off these chicks won't let me go (To the one in the red dress) I'mma se what I can do about that (To the one in the white shirt) get me back to the one in the black, girl,
I'mma get that
(Here I go again)
On the freeway, me and shorty at the getaway
(Here I go again)
Tearin' it up
Can't get to sleep cos I'm thinking about my girl

And I'm tired of these games
different faces different names
I know something's gotta change
That ain't how I wanna live
Every night different chick
I gotta hit the models
At the parties in the city that never sleeps
But I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
love
Prada and the soul provider
Gotta chase the game pickin up can't break the shame
but I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
love
(and I'm thinking)

What you got your flight, 2am up on the red eye
(but I'm thinking)
If I see my girl, she's gonna see the cheating in my eye
Better hope not ____
Went to the bathroom to clean my hands
Took a look in the mirror
Hope that the ____ wish that I had my girl here instead

(I started thinking)
Maybe I'm buggin'
Maybe I just wanna get with other women
(but I'm thinking)
That don't make no sense, cos none of them measure up to what she gives

And I'm tired of these games
Different faces different names
I know something's gotta change
That ain't how I wanna live
Every night different chick
I gotta hit the models
At the parties in the city that never sleeps
But I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
love
Prada and the soul provider
Gotta chase the game pickin up can't break the shame
but I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
love
(and I'm thinking)

Maybe I'll just call my girl and tell her that I need her ghetto love
(That ghetto love)
Maybe I should just leave Grab the keys to my car, cos I don't think she'll get my
ghetto love
(What am I doing?)
Maybe I should take a minute clear my head before I jump the gun
(I know what I need) Cos I know what I need right now and it's gotta be my
ghetto love

That ain't how I wanna live
Every night different chick
I gotta hit the models
At the parties in the city that never sleeps
but I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
Prada and the soul provider
Gotta chase the game pickin up can't break the shame
but I know when I touchdown my girl's got that ghetto
love

I ain't goin nowhere
I'm staying right here
Oh Godâ€¦.
