"Masquerade"

I'm here , laying underneath
But there is nothing left to say
You slowly went your way from me
Felt your softness fade away
Who am I ?
To make you stay
Oh , here we go again
Entering the masquerade
This is the place
Dreams will shatter
Cover your face and care no more
She don't care no more

These narrowed eyes I don't know
Nothing is there behind
The mask you wear
Now it feels so unreal
Cold as ice
This face I see

Masquerade , masquerade
Let me out
Masquerade, masquerade
Care no more
Masquerade
She don't care no more
Masquerade, masquerade
Let me out to save her
