"Autumn"

Autumn leaves under frozen souls
Hungry hands turing soft and old
My hero crying as we stood out their in the cold
Like these autumn leaves I dont have nothing to hold

Handsome smiles wearing handsome shoes
Too young to say, though I swear he knew
And I hear him singing while he sits there in his chair
While these autumn leaves float around everywhere

And I look at you, and I see me
Making noise so restlessly
But now its quiet and I can hear you sing
'My little fish dont cry, my little fish dont cry'

Autumn leaves how fading now,
That smile that I've lost, well I've found somehow,
Because you still live on in my fathers eyes,
These autumn leaves
All these autumn leaves
All these autumn leaves are yours tonight

Mmm
