You're so down on inspiration, like it's never coming back to you I hold on to my salvation, before it gets too much for you
If I had another sense of elation, I'd give it all up for you
But I never want to tempt these faces into another point of view

I'm evolving before you and I like it

Oh give it all up to me now, there's nothing else left to do
It's all just an aggravation, you know that I'm coming for you
It's all just an education for what I already knew
With the ease that I ask these questions,
You know that I'll never be you

I'm evolving before you and I like it
I did what I had to, and I like it [x2]

I'm evolving before you and I like it [x2]
