Hold on we'll go our separate ways
Hold on we'll go our separate ways
Hold on we'll go our separate ways

We're not talking, your silent eyes
Look at me please, we'll be alright
And I'll drop to my knees and hold you tight
Kiss your forever and I'll tell you forever
I love you I said, that night was yours
You said it back, I knew it for sure
But it died in you in a second and I knew
So now right back cos this letters for you

Perfectly said but you never said a word
The silence will be broken by the thousand sounds I heard
I said I've done enough I should of done more
I'll quite crying my heart out if I hear goodbye that's all
I said it's perfectly phrased but you never wrote a word
The silence will be broken by the hand that wrote this verse
I said I've done enough I should of done more
I'll quite crying my heart out if I hear good bye that's all

(Please) Don't leave now
Don't leave now
Don't leave now
Don't leave now
