We used to go together
Looking out for each other
I thought that you were better
Look at you
You used to be so laid back
You always kept it so cool
I loved you 'cause of that
That's the truth

I don't think you know where your head is
I was always there to help you break the fall

And now you wanna pretend that you a superstar
And now you want us to end what's taken you this far
Don't tell me that you're done as far as we go
You need to have a sit-down with your ego
When everyone's gone, and you all by yourself
You know that you gonna come to me for help
Don't tell me that it's time for going solo
You need to knock some sense into you ego

You act like you on fire
Living your delusion
You just need you to take you higher
Off you go
Yeah

You can't make the call when you're ready
I will not be there to help you break the fall

And now you wanna pretend that you a superstar
And now you want us to end what's taken you this far
Don't tell me that you're done as far as we go
You need to have a sit-down with your ego
When everyone's gone, and you all by yourself
You know that you gonna come to me for help
Don't tell me that it's time for going solo
You need to knock some sense into you ego

And when it's time for you to come back to
Where you started, where we parted

I think you'll find that it is very hard to face
Reality's a simple fate

And now you wanna pretend that you a superstar
And now you want us to end what's taken you this far
Don't tell me that you're done as far as we go
You need to have a sit-down with your ego
When everyone's gone, and you all by yourself
You know that you gonna come to me for help
Don't tell me that it's time for going solo
You need to knock some sense into you ego
