[Gizmo]

5-o'clock in the mornin, I feel a nudge in my spirit so I woke up thoughts travelin thru my mind of what happened, I feel a tow up, yeah just the other day around the way there was another shootin and I was up all night, prayin and rebukin demons off the city that I live in I know the spirit is willin, the flesh is weak, still I can't give in too many of us want a free ride thats how you get caught up, homie, and ensnared by the dark side the devil lurks like a roarin lion and ain't no love in the world, the only One to love is here in Zion come unto Christ and you'll see that it's a lot better I know it's gonna take some time to get cha life together forget about the past, you just keep on goin you sow the seed, so believe me, it started growin Jesus came down to show his love and the way that it was done was the shed blood

[Chorus]

Don't it seem kind of strange how every thing seems to stay the same no one really wants to change they still wanna do the same old thang

[Daddy Free]

Daddy Free, Daddy Free, w'sup, who callin me? you return to your vomit, now you crawlin, G dont it seem kinda strange, brotha can't even change you stuck up in the game, it's a shame, yeah you to blame
I'm thumpin pride, and please, fight for wishin top (?) forgot the word that you heard and I saw you drop stop, look, and listen to your heart and what it's sayin I'm tryin to save you from Hell, ain't nobody playin the path you walkin down, dog, thats the wrong road spirit closed, no emotions, your heart is cold many times I seen you try to do the right thang but then you give up on your efforts and you wipin with your gang big tone try to tell you in the first verse and now we watch you get put away, then it hurts I see the loneliness and pain in your eyes the question you should ask ya'self is why

[repeat chorus]

[Interlude]

Yeah this the CMC's we just wanna let y'all know it's time to be real with God so he can start bein real with us but we must first be Christians before we anything and it's a shame

[Gizmo]

how many more homies gotta die, how many more babies gotta cry how many more bullets gotta fly, how many more sacks will you be flippin before you quittin, the way the Grim Reaper gets you slippin
you say life is a game and only the strong survive thats a lie, cause only the Saved survive let me take you back, bout 12 years ago when I was in colors, me and my brother doin the same old

[Daddy Free]

then change came, and then change was made and those who didnt change stayed evangelo the grave (?)
but now the blinders is off, and it's clear that it gots us doin thangs we did ten years back same hood, same colors, same places new clothes, new faces, but still it's the same cases bein caught on the daily, it's the same and it's shame ain't nuthin change

[repeat chorus 3X]
