[Chorus: Dj Ill Will]

I'm just tryna live the life

I'm just tryna live the life

I'm just tryna live the life

The life of a rock star

[x2]

[Verse 1: Ya Boy]

Big bottles, champagne poppin'

At my table wylin out with ya dame watchin'

I live the life where being a broke nigga is not an option

Me and my ballin' friends came for the same object

Big fancy watches, who cares what the time is

I just bought it cause it got a whole lot of diamonds

I keep the function rockin, drunk off the juice and vodka

I need to go home but I can't the woman keep flockin'

You say you goon shit I used to be a goblin

Now I got ya favorite actress in my lap bobbin'

Lots of alcohol, lots of drugs been inside me

Paris Hilton and Jay-Z both stood beside me

The fans love me, the Louie V glass is hot me

I do this baby, this is my life, this is not a hobby

I set the trends and watch these other clown niggas

copy

So don't be mad when you see me in that black Bugatti

[Chorus: Dj Ill Will]

I'm just tryna live the life

I'm just tryna live the life

I'm just tryna live the life

The life of a rock star

[x2]

[Verse 2: Ya Boy]

Fast cars, Fast sex with them fast broads

Have fun wit em then them women get passed off

We hit the club and ain't gotta take our hats off

The after party women gotta take they pants off

They tried to grab me, the bouncer tell em to back off

Enough pictures ladys, "Fuck you you fucking jack off"

I live the life that most of these people would kill for

The strip club is where most our dollar bills go
But I ain't tricking cause after them women change clothes
They throw it in my pocket the same way they got rained on
What should I wear today, the Bentley or the Range
Rove
Or maybe I should wear the SL6 with brains blown
I change cars like a clean man change drawers
Why change me, I ain't tryna change ya'll
I think they hatin' on a kid cause they name small
We in the same game playin' with a different ball

[Chorus: DJ Ill Will]
I'm just tryna live the life
I'm just tryna live the life
I'm just tryna live the life
The life of a rock star
[x4]
