There's nothing left
Nothing to see
Just lost souls
And forgotten dreams

At this point, can we even be saved?
At this point, can we even be saved?

We're losing ourselves
Hiding behind closed doors
We're walking in our sleep

There's so much potential
But it's all wasted
Death and despair
Are all that's left

We're losing ourselves
Hiding behind closed doors

No one (no one)
Is living

We're losing ourselves
Hiding behind closed doors
