English translation
She just floats in her world
And he tries to touch
She recoils
Does not know
You sit in the corner and watch her
In the evening
You wake up from sleep
See an open window
And are not sure
What has happened to her
What has she done
You fear she has jumped
Outside she flies
On a little cloud
She has built a transparent tower
With a paintbrush
And inside it
All the angels fly
And all the little fairies dance
In a circle turning round and round

Endlessly
