When you feel ashamed go to the river
When you're feeling sad go to the river
When you're feeling blue inside, immersed and tied
When you're feeling stuck in pain, forever

Go go go go - go tonight, you Sigh and sigh inside you long for More, more of the life you had to be Fore fore fore, let the seasons Arrive and dive let the winter snow and glow when the wind will blow just Flow flow, eventually you will know

Go, go,
You should go, go
You should go, go
You should go, go
Go, go

When you're feeling bad, go to the river
When you're feeling mad, go to the river
When you feel it blows your mind, cause you can't find
When you feel you're going blind, you can't deny! I say

Go go go with the river flow you
Hide hide hide - but the river gets wide don't Row, row with everything you
Know, know, know, all you've carried inside
Side, side, side, let the water unwind - don't Fight, fight, fight - the river is right - let Go, go, go eventually you will grow

When you feel you'll lose your mind - they'll let you slide
When you feel you go insane - they let you die

Go go the river will know
Blow blow, the river will blow
Go go ,the wind will sigh

Blow blow the leaves can die
Go go the seeds will grow
Blow blow, the river will slow
Go go the years go by Blow blow, with the river go!

Go go go go in your soul you
Try to fly but never get high you're Low low - wishing for the Tide to rise - hold your feelings inside Side side side - let the river glide and Slow slow, the winter will go you Know know know - with everything you'll grow
Whatever comes will go

Go go go down the river below you Sigh sigh sigh and the years go by and So , so, the leaves will fall but More more more, you wanted even more just
Go go go with the river flow, you
Can't decide cause the river gets wild you Know, know that there's no goal no
Sign , sign...
Eventually you will find
