A STORY UNTOLD

Crew Cuts

Well here in my heart, there's a story untold of a girl who left me standing, standing in the cold and since she's been away I've never had a happy day I hope and I pray, that she'll hear my plea and maybe someday, she'll come back to me for, here in my heart, there's a story untold For all you've said and done you said we'd be as one but darling I found I was wrong but what did you do, right from the start you made of fool of me and then you broke my heart well
I hope and I pray, that she'll hear my plea
and maybe someday, she'll come back to me
A story, story untold
