Da dum da dum da dum da dum
Da dum da dum da dum

Sun sets on a cloudy afternoon, you walk away Phone calls never end in the words I wish you'd say Is there something wrong with you?
I used to be so good at this, but lately
I just don't know?

Sun sets on a cold evening sky, you turn your face
?don't go so soon,? I said.
?I gotta leave, just wait and see that we will be more than we ever have before because we wanted this so bad wanted this so bad?

why can't we try just one more night
make things turn out like the way we used to be why is it something that you won't let go
I think its something that you need That's why it means so much to me

I'm used to the way things are going right now Solemn face, no smiles, well, no talking at all Why would we put ourselves through the pain
When you could turn around and walk it all away Walk it all away

why can't we try just one more night
make things turn out like
the way we used to be
why is it something that you won't let go
I think its something that you need
That's why it means the world to me

Just say the words, and I'd let you go I'd give you up to know for sure Just know its not right to find me wide awake at night (Do you know what you've got?)
Cuz she'd give it all away, just to hear you say:

don't cry at night, we'll be alright just take a day at a time, you know you'll never lose me.
I've made up my mind, it's about time
I'll be by your side, you're no more ever lonely.
why can't we try just one more night
make things turn out like
the way we used to be
why is it something that you won't let go
I think it's something that you need
That's why I'd give up everything
