I've started to pick myself up, cause Ive fallen to far to admit Its my fault for considering it
And these lies go too far to cover them up so I fall Its your fault and I have to admit, you were wrong Its about time I stood up, give myself sometime to forgive Listen up and start writing it in Cause these lines are screwed up, I wish I could ignore all the things
Its your fault for considering it

And you've finally started seeing yourself through my eyes
Found time and I have to admit you were right
Yes you were and I'm proud to announce That in time you'll feel fine, you'll feel fine

Cause you're taking control, making sure that youve got things figured out I'm finally taking control, cause I've got things in better perspective now
And I want you to know, and I want you to know That we're expecting the best, we're expecting amazing things from you Break out of this home broken town and I've got something for you

Leave me to my desperation, have somethings that might just hold me back from it I've got time and an ear to listen and a feeling that you're really needing this I cant help it and I'm really sorry, Im hurting more than I've ever hurt before Crossed lines and a calm surrender, lots of compassion but you've got no where to go

And I've finally started seeing myself through your eyes
You have to admit I was right
Yes you were and Im proud to announce

That with time I'll feel fine, I'll feel fine

Cause you're taking control, making sure that you've
got things figured out
I'm finally taking control, cause I've got things in better
perspective now
And I want you to know, and I want you to know
amazing things from you Break out of this home broken town and I've got something for you

Saved me from myself today, heard from someone you needed to be saved
Saved me from myself today, heard from someone
you needed to be saved
Saved me from myself today, heard from someone
you needed to be saved
Saved me from myself today, heard from someone
you needed to be saved
