whoa whoa whoa whoa whoa
they into you
they wanted you that they don't know cos they don't know you and i try to snatch your attention to qualify for some kind of affection

my patience grows heavily hoping that you will see there's someone who needs you enough someone who believes enough in you, in you, in you hamilton jane was a prize of a girl in a world of empty shells inside a little pearl but hamilton jane was not ready for the world oh i hope for, the hope for hamilton jane

so she gives karma her all and it shocks her to behold that karma don't pay on time no matter how much it hurts but from the outside looking in to the world that claim their friends a life is a ride and they don't see it die, die and it hurts to see a limitations go unheard your cup is draining from the bottle and no one even knows your thirst except me, i see you i want you to see

hamilton jane you're so beautiful to me one might be blind to your dreams but they're colourful to me oh hamilton and jane you can tell me anything oh how i long for the love of hamilton jane

there's a melody for love like a melody for song
i know your melody girl inside out
there's a melody for love
there's a melody

for someone who needs you enough
in you, in you, in you, in you

someone who believes just enough

hamilton jane you're a class all alone hamilton jane you got style on your own hamilton jane just the name is perfect to me hamilton jane you're a class all alone
yeahh
