Tell me what lies behind your eyes,
Your beauty fades but the passion comes alive.

Tell me again, how your dream begins,
Cause when the night falls it's alright with me,
If you wanna make believe.

Whisper your laugh in my ear,
The world disappears and only I can hear.

Music descending, hearts transcending,
And only in this moment we hold the key.

I got a secret, I only tell if you want.
Nobody's got to know, oh no, nobody's got to know.
I got a secret, can you keep it.
Nobody's got to know, oh no, nobody's got to know.

Try to forget the past,
Somethings remain and others never last.
Just by this minute,
Why don't we finish what we started long ago,
You can't say no.

(3x)
I got a secret, I only tell if you want.
Nobody's got to know, oh no, nobody's got to know.
I got a secret, can you keep it.
Nobody's got to know, oh no, nobody's got to know.
