Rest assured that I love you girl,
Oh you complete my world,
I really love you girl.
And I know that if I was you,
Oh then I'd love me too,
You see I'm just too good to be true.

But there's only one of me,
And there's not enough to go round
Can't you see.
Pardon me for being so cruel,
But the general consensus you see
Is that I f*cking rule.

And I'm only nice honey when it suits me,

Hush now baby don't you cry,
My head's stuck up my ass and I wanna die.
Hush now baby don't you cry,
My head's stuck up my ass and I wanna die.
Hush now baby don't you cry,
My head's stuck up my ass and I wanna,

And I never thought that I'd act this way,
The way I act today makes me feel ashamed.
And I know that I may have lost my way,
May have been led astray,
But I'll make it right someday.

And I know my girl that my ego grows day by day,

Hush now baby don't you cry,
My head's stuck up my ass and I wanna die.
Hush now baby don't you cry,
My head's stuck up my ass and I wanna die.
Don't you cry,
